Amazing opportunity to enter the market in the desirable SE community of Copperfield! Wonderful location and right across the street from a park and walking paths, this newer complex with low condo fees may well be what you have been seeking all along. This modern and open concept plan is highlighted by a dream kitchen, which includes a black appliance package, granite countertops with undermount sink overlooking a generous eating area and living space. Enjoy a summer BBQ on the large balcony, which also includes a natural gas connection. Bedroom has a connecting walk through closet to the dual access bathroom. Vinyl plank and tile flooring dominate. In addition, the condo has just been professionally painted. This quiet unit is located at the end of the hallway and is close to the side door for easy access to additional street parking. Titled parking and assigned storage are simply icing on the cake. Close to area parks, schools, and major roadways to get you anywhere you need to go. Show and sell.
